

Printable Test 4

Chapter 1: Living Things and Their Habitats

How Living Things Adapt

Name: _____	Date: _____
Class: _____	Marks: _____ / 20

A. Choose the best answer.

1. An adaptation helps a living thing (survive / become a toy / stop growing).
2. Polar bears have thick fur to keep (warm / wet / noisy).
3. A camel's humps store (fat / leaves / feathers).
4. A giraffe's long neck helps it reach (high leaves / deep water / underground roots).
5. A cactus stores water in its thick (stem / flower / spine).

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. White fur helps a polar bear blend into snow. This is called _____.
2. Camels have long _____ to keep sand out of their eyes.
3. Fish use _____ to breathe underwater.
4. Penguins have thick _____ to help keep them warm.

C. Write True or False.

1. Cactus spines help protect the plant and save water. _____
2. Adaptations are the same in every habitat. _____
3. Living things can have body features or behaviours that help them survive. _____

D. Short answer.

1. What is an adaptation?

2. Give one adaptation of an animal and explain how it helps.
